Selected Answer: A

I think A is correct. The question was not about bugs or quality issues, so C is not relevant. Though C is also an advantage for cloud solution.

Selected Answer: C

For me it's C because the company is trying to meet customer's demand for change and C covers that by mentioning "updates".

Selected Answer: C

I don't like this question. The word "change" is confusing and should be "improvement". Either way, I'm going with C
